

Pupils and Parents Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice has been written to inform parents and pupils of Warwick Road Primary School about what we do with your personal information. This Notice may be subject to change.

Who are we?

Warwick Road Primary School is a 'Data Controller' as defined by Article 4 (7) of the UK GDPR. This means that we determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, your personal data is processed. We have a responsibility to you and your personal data and will only collect and use this in ways which are compliant with data protection legislation.

The school has appointed Veritau Ltd to be its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to ensure that the school is compliant with the UK GDPR and to oversee data protection procedures. If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact the School Business Manager or Veritau Ltd.

Veritau's contact details are:

Schools Data Protection Officer
Veritau Ltd
County Hall
Racecourse Lane
Northallerton
DL7 8AL

schoolsDPO@veritau.co.uk
01904 554025

Please ensure you include the name of your school in all correspondence

What personal information do we collect?

The personal data we collect about you includes:

- Personal identifiers and contact details, including name, postal address, email address, phone number, date of birth, and pupil number.
- Educational and assessment attainment (such as early years, phonics and national curriculum assessment results).
- Characteristics such as free school meal eligibility and language spoken.
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences, absence reasons and any previous schools attended)

- Behavioural information (such as exclusions and any relevant alternative provision put in place)
- Safeguarding information (including but not limited to court orders and professional involvement and support)
- Child in Need or Looked After status, including episodes of being looked after or a child in need, adoptions, care leavers and outcome information.
- Healthcare and medical information such as doctor details, allergies, medication and dietary requirements.
- Photographs and communication preferences, including CCTV footage
- Information relating to school trips and extra-curricular activities
- Records of communications and interactions we have with you, including telephone call recordings.
- Before and after call attendance.
- Equality monitoring information, such as your ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and gender.
- Medical information relevant to pandemic management, such as your vaccination status and positive test results.
- E-monitoring information about your use of the school's network and IT systems.

Why do we collect your personal data?

We process your information for the purposes outlined below:

- to support pupil learning
- to meet our safeguarding obligation to pupils.
- to provide wraparound care before school
- to monitor and report on pupil attainment progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our educational provision
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us regarding DfE data collections.
- during a pandemic, to prevent the spread of infection and maintain adequate and safe pupil and staffing levels
- to promote the school, including in newsletters, on the school website and social media platforms.

What is our lawful basis for processing your information?

Under the UK GDPR, it is essential to have a lawful basis when processing personal information. We normally rely on the following lawful bases:

- Article 6(1)(a) – consent
- Article 6(1)(c) - legal obligation
- Article 6(1)(e) - public task

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind or are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the School Business Manager.

There may be occasions where our processing is not covered by one of the legal bases above. In that case, we may rely on Article 6(1)(f) - legitimate interests. We only rely on legitimate interests when we are using your data in ways you would reasonably expect.

Some of the information we collect about you is classed as special category data under the UK GDPR. The additional conditions that allow for processing this data are:

- Article 9(2)(a) – explicit consent
- Article 9(2)(g) - reasons of substantial public interest

The applicable substantial public interest conditions in Schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018 are:

- Condition 6 - statutory and government purposes
- Condition 10 - preventing or detecting unlawful acts
- Condition 18 - safeguarding of children and vulnerable people

Who do we obtain your information from?

We normally receive this information directly from you, for example via admissions forms, or secure file transfer from a previous school. However, we may also receive some information from the following third parties:

- Department for Education (DfE).
- Local Authority.
- Other agencies working with the child/family, such as Police, Health Services etc.

Who do we share your personal data with?

We may share your information with the following organisations:

- Schools/education providers that the pupils attend after leaving us.
- Local Authority.
- Department for Education (DfE).
- National Health Service (NHS) bodies.
- Youth support services, where relevant.
- Other agencies working with the child/family, where appropriate.
- Relevant examination/awarding bodies.
- School suppliers and IT applications, where necessary.

For more information on information sharing with the DfE please visit the DfE website.

We may also share information with other third parties where there is a lawful basis to do so. For example, we sometimes share information with the police for the purposes of crime detection or prevention. We also regularly share information with appropriate organisations for the purposes of arranging school trips.

How long do we keep your personal data for?

We will retain your information in accordance with our Records Management Policy and Retention Schedule. The retention period for most of the information we process about you is determined by statutory obligations. Any personal information which we are not required by law to retain will only be kept for as long as is reasonably necessary to fulfil its purpose.

International transfers of data

Although we are based in the UK, some of the digital information we hold may be stored on computer servers located outside the UK. Some of the IT applications we use may also transfer data outside the UK.

Normally your information will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area, which is deemed to have adequate data protection standards by the UK government. In the event that your information is transferred outside the EEA, we will take reasonable steps to ensure your data is protected and appropriate safeguards are in place.

We may also retain some information for historical and archiving purposes in accordance with our Records Management policy.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under the UK GDPR parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data:

- to be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation
- to request access to your personal data that we hold, and be provided with a copy of it
- to request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete
- to request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to request that the processing of your personal data is restricted
- to object to your personal data being processed

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO on the address provided above.

Please be aware that usually pupils are considered to have the mental capacity to understand their own data protection rights from the age of 12 years old. The school may therefore consult with the pupil if it receives a request to exercise a data protection right from a parent.

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO using the details provided above.

If we cannot resolve your concerns you may also complain to the Information Commissioner's office, which is the UK's data protection regulator. Their contact details are below:

Phone: 0303 123 1113 or via their live chat. Opening hours are Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm (excluding bank holidays). You can also report, enquire, register and raise complaints with the ICO using their web form on Contact us | ICO.

Changes to this notice

We reserve the right to change this privacy notice at any time. We will normally notify you of changes that affect you. However, please check regularly to ensure you have the latest version.

This privacy notice was last reviewed 17 November 2022.